

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The tax calculator is provided to you by Artifin Accountants Limited for guidance purpose only and is the property of Artifin Accountants and shall remain the property of Artifin Accountants
- This provision of the calculator shall not in any circumstances transfer to you the right to own or transfer the calculator to a third party
- The tax calculator is based on the tax rates for the tax year 2011/2012
- The circumstances assumed when designing the calculator were generic and thus individual tax circumstances might result in a reduced or increased tax liability. (E.g. Personal Allowance for Ages above 65 years)
- The calculator can be used for generating estimates, as mentioned above; individual circumstances may vary and provide different results
- Any decisions based on the estimates from the calculator are at the discretion and responsibility of the user
- Artifin will not accept any claims or liabilities arising from the decision made, using the information that is generated from use of this calculator
- This calculator shall only be used by individuals/organisations; permitted to use by Artifin Accountants Limited. The permission for usage might be withdrawn without prior notice
- The usage of this calculator shall result in an implied agreement to all the terms and conditions relevant to the usage of this calculator; mentioned or unmentioned in this document
